

Kamal Dua

CHIEF AUDIT EXECUTIVE

Kamal Dua is the Senior Vice President and Chief Audit Executive for Leidos. Reporting to the Audit & Finance Committee of the Board of Directors, Dua leads the company's Internal Audit function which works across the enterprise to improve the risk management practices of Leidos' financial, operational, and information system internal controls.

An experienced finance, compliance, and risk management professional, Dua brings nearly 35 years of audit and governance experience to Leidos. He previously worked at Harris Corporation where he was Vice President of Internal Audit and Compliance. He also previously held audit leadership positions at Cable & Wireless Communications PLC, Comcast Corporation, and Mitchell & Titus LLP, the largest minority controlled CPA firm in the U.S.

Dua is a Certified Public Accountant in the U.S. and Fellow Chartered Accountant in the U.K. He holds an M.B.A. from Long Island University, an M.S. in information systems engineering from Polytechnic University, and an M.S. in sustainability management from Columbia University. He is also a candidate for an M.S. in cybersecurity from the University of South Florida.