

Kamal Dua

CHIEF AUDIT EXECUTIVE

Kamal Dua is a Senior Vice President and the Chief Audit Executive for Leidos. Reporting to the Audit & Finance Committee of the Board of Directors, Dua leads Leidos' Internal Audit function responsible for the performance of financial, operational, information systems, and cybersecurity audits across the enterprise to improve risk management and related mitigation strategies.

An experienced finance, compliance, and risk management professional, Dua brings more than 30 years of governance and audit experience to Leidos. He previously worked at Harris Corporation where he was Vice President of Internal Audit and Compliance. Prior to joining Leidos he held Internal Audit leadership positions at Cable & Wireless Communications PLC and Comcast Corporation. At Mitchell & Titus LLP, the largest minority controlled Certified Public Accountant (CPA) firm in the U.S., he led the Advisory Services practice.

Dua is a CPA in the U.S. and Fellow Chartered Accountant in the U.K. He is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. Dua earned an M.B.A. from Long Island University, an M.S. in Information Systems Engineering from Polytechnic University (now NYU), and an M.S. in Sustainability Management from Columbia University in New York City. He has also completed The Wharton School's Advanced Management Program. Currently, Dua is a candidate for an M.S. in Cybersecurity from the University of South Florida.
