

Gareth Humphreys

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, FINANCIAL BENEFITS - LCST

Gareth Humphreys is the Associate Director for LCST Financial Benefit, reporting functionally to the UK Finance and Business Operations Vice President (UK CFO), and to the Programme Director for the Logistics Commodities Services Transformation (LCST) programme. Within the LCST programme he is responsible for the financial aspects of benefit delivery to the UK MOD Customer and for overseeing the gain share mechanism that rewards Team Leidos for delivering programme cost savings.

Gareth joined Leidos in March 2017, having spent 19 years with Rolls-Royce Defence Aerospace, where his final position was Cost Executive for the Defence Sector. In this role he had delivery and reporting responsibility for product cost across the USA and UK Defence Aerospace engines portfolio, including delivery of cost reduction initiatives, and was also engaged in the financial aspects of the internal cost base transformation programme. Previous positions included Financial Controller for Aftermarket contracts, and prior to that for the Joint Strike Fighter (JSF) development and production contracts.

Gareth also occupied the role of Risk Manager for the Rolls-Royce Defence Sector, transforming the management of financial risk within long term contracts by establishing and subsequently overseeing an annual cycle of over 30 contract reviews. During his early career he moved between various Programme and Management Accounting roles having started in the Commercial Function pricing Development, Production and Aftermarket contracts – giving early exposure to Government Accounting and audit.

He is a Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) and obtained a BA(Hons) from the University of Huddersfield.
