

James Langley

DIRECTOR, INFORMATION SERVICES GROWTH & INNOVATION

---

James is the Director of Information Services Growth and Innovation for the Logistics and Mission Support Division.

As IS Director, James provided IT and software development to integrate legacy MOD systems with Leidos IS enabling modern inventory, warehousing and transport management systems and updating 30 years of technical debt in 30 months to deliver digital transformation.

Led technology transformation for the largest organisation awarding GCSE and A levels in the UK. Revising the strategic plan for IT transformation and outsourcing a major software development programme to deliver Azure cloud hosted enterprise business services.

Service in the Army for 23 years including operations in multiple theatres, leaving as a Colonel. Highlights included Command of 11th Signal Regiment, redefining a secure IT and telecommunications transformation programme and driving a new Service Level Agreement enabling significant savings.

A Chartered Engineer and Chartered IT Professional with a BEng(Hons) in Electrical and Electronic Engineering and an MA in Defence Studies.

