

Mike Hill

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, INTEGRATION & STRATEGY

Mike Hill is the Associate Director of Integration and Strategy for the LCST Programme within the Logistics and Mission Support Division having assumed the role in January 2023.

His responsibilities include: Managing the cadence and facilitate the preparation of internal and external governance reviews; Monitoring, evaluating and communicating progress against strategic and operational goals; Engaging and supporting the Managing Director in establishing and delivering his responsibilities for the £6.5Bn Logistics, Commodities and Services Transformation Programme with the UK Ministry of Defence.

Mike joined Leidos in March 2018 as the Senior Quality Manager and has held the position of Head of Governance & Compliance.

Prior to joining Leidos, Mike held positions in Rolls-Royce plc, General Electric Inc. and Baker Hughes inc., where he developed skills including resource and functional management, commercial acumen, quality management and lean six sigma (gaining certification as a Black Belt Improvement Leader).

Mike has over 27 years industry expertise having operated in Military and Civil Aerospace, Oil & Gas and Logistics, he is a Member of the Chartered Quality Institute.

Mike is married, has 2 grown up children and enjoys volunteering, travelling, football and music.